Using the word "Sorry"

(Remember - in English you can use "sorry" a lot)

Sorry, what did you say?

Sorry, when did you say?

Sorry, how much did you say?

Sorry, who did you say? (sorry who?)

Sorry, where did you say?

Sorry, how long did you say?

Sorry, I didn't catch that

Sorry, I don't understand

Sorry, I'm not with you

Other ways of clarifying things you did not hear or understand?

Don't you mean...?

Shouldn't that be ...?

I don't quite see what you mean

You mean the right?

Sorry, I didn't quite catch your name

Remember, never be embarrassed for using "Sorry" too much. It is a very common word in the English language and you will hear native speakers using it a lot.
